

BYU ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING_{Club}

Annual Report—2015

EVENT BREAKDOWN

Laurin Crosson Q&A Feb.

The Abolitionists Screening Feb.

Second Screening Mar.

Recognizing the Signs June

Safe House Cleanups Mar.-Present

Stadium Cleanups Sept.-Nov.

Peery Film Festival Oct.

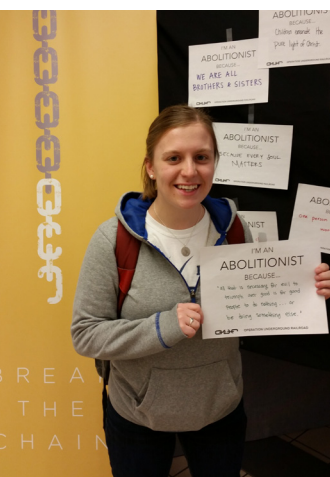

Slave-Free Chocolate Tasting Nov.

Laurin Crosson Q&A

Feb. 17, 2015
WSC 5519
Attendance: c. 200

Sex-trafficking survivor Laurin Crosson spoke to BYU students and faculty about her experiences being trafficked all over the United States, how she found freedom and then the restored gospel, and what we all can do to fight trafficking in our communities.

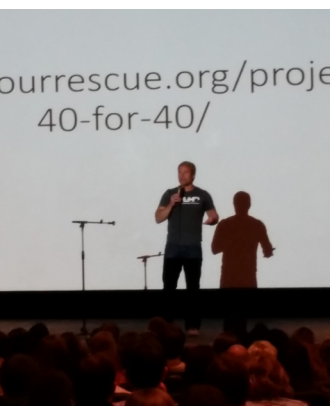

The Abolitionists Screening— Care Week

February 23–27, 2015

Screening: February 25, 2015

Varsity Theater

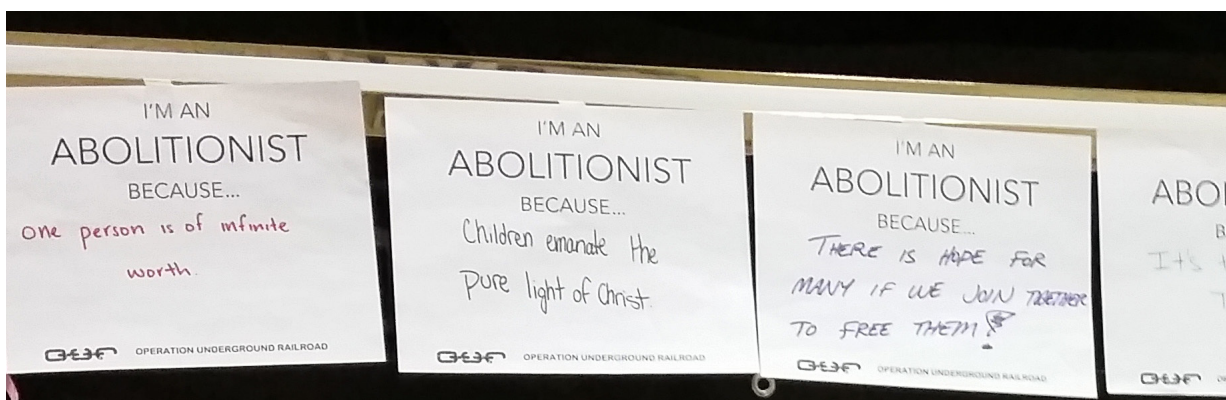

Attendance: 400+

Operation Underground Railroad founder and CEO, ex-CIA agent Tim

Ballard, came and showed his documentary The Abolitionists with film director Chet Fletcher. After the screening, Ballard and Fletcher answered audience questions and told stories about their work and the making of the film to audience members.

Cash & Credit Donations:	$1,874.47
Online Donations:	$3,522.11
Total Donations:	$5,396.58
Total (with price match):	$10,793.16

Second Screening—The Abolitionists

March 18, 2015

JSB Auditorium

Attendance: 650+

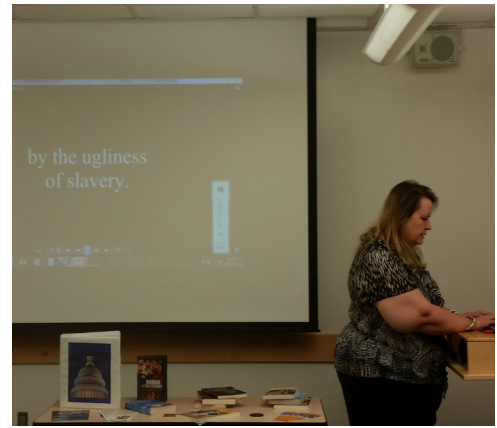

Tim Ballard and Chet Fletcher came for an encore screening of the documentary in response to the overwhelming support for the first screening and the number of individuals who wanted to see the room but were unable to because the venue was too small. Chelsea Hightower and Attorney General Sean Reyes also made appearances at the event. The Anti-Human Trafficking Club presented Ballard with a check of the money raised the week of the first screening.

Recognizing the Signs of Human Trafficking Training

Guest Speaker: Lynette Widdison
June 25, 2015
JKB 1010

Lynette Widdison trained BYU students on how to recognize the signs of human trafficking and familiarized students with the many organizations she has worked with that are working hard to fight trafficking in the United States today.

Safe House Cleanups

March–November, 2015
Rockstarr Ministry's Safe House

The club, or various members, went over to the Safe House many times over the summer, and continued to help out during the school year. Most often students would sweep, mop, do yard work and other house maintenance.

Stadium Cleanup

North Section of the Lavell Edwards Stadium

Saturday, Sept. 12, 2015—11:15PM

Friday, Oct. 2, 2015—11:15PM

Saturday, Oct. 10, 2015—8:30PM

Friday, Oct. 16, 2015—6:00PM

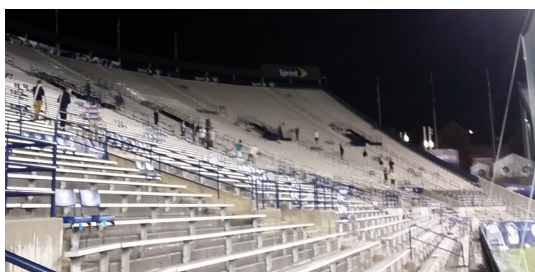

Saturday, Oct. 24, 2015—4:00PM

Saturday, Nov. 21, 2015—4:00PM

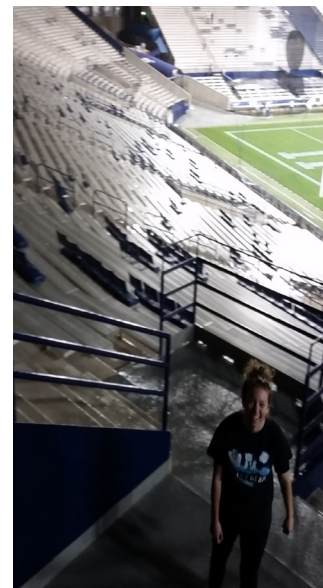

Attendance: 15–43

As part of a semester-long effort to raise money to support human trafficking organizations, club members and members of other clubs came together to clean the North of the football stadium after home football games, rain, shine, or freezing cold.

Game 1:	$1,027.33
Game 2:	$1,111.34
Game 3:	$1,406.52
Game 4:	$606.32
Game 5:	$588.98
Game 6:	$1,500.00
Total:	$6,240.49

Peery Film Festival

Wednesday, Oct. 28, 2015
Abolitionists Screening

We partnered with the Ballard Center for Economic Self-Reliance to screen The Abolitionists again at BYU as part of the Peery Film Festival, an annual film festival showing groundbreaking new documentaries about social issues. Club members talked with students at a booth about what the Anti-Human Trafficking Club does and how they can help end trafficking here in Provo and around the world.

Slave-Free Chocolate Tasting

Guest Speaker: Lillian Martino

November 19, 2015

WSC Terrace

Attendance: 70+

Students, faculty, and members of the community came together to learn about supply chains, labor trafficking, and slave-free product certifications. Oh, and to try some delicious slave-free certified chocolate!

Lillian Martino shared her amazing life story and the mission of her organization, Fahodie for Friends. Then participants got to sample

